COMPANY INFORMATION

Brickhouse Capital provides equipment financing, leasing & business loans to a variety of businesses. We advise the growth of small, mid-sized and large businesses across the United States. From basic office equipment to advanced heavy machinery, Brickhouse has the ability to fund virtually any kind of business equipment or project size.

We're a technologically advanced & modern firm who understands the current financial markets and continues to work toward what is around the corner in lending. Whether you purchase software five times per year or heavy machinery once every five years, you will work directly with an account manager who knows your industry and will work to understand your individual situation.

Regardless of the best-laid plans, businesses often have to move quickly - Brickhouse affords you the ability to do that. Our One-Page Application-Only program can efficiently provide up to $250,000 or more within a short time frame. We know what your equipment means to you, and as a result, we consistently offer the most efficient & cost effective financing terms available.

Brickhouse Capital helps companies in over 25 industries secure financing at all stages of growth. We accomplish this by applying our knowledge and creative thinking to your projects. That is why we are one of the fastest growing private companies, and that is how we can help your company become one too.
