

Meridian Group International, Inc. is a commanding collection of companies that excel at solving the holistic infrastructure requirements of world-class businesses. Comprised of several united entities and market-leading partners, we are ideally positioned to serve both large and small businesses with the full range of IT requirements. Through consultation and a deep understanding of the full range of technology arenas, we serve as a single point of contact with safe, secure and affordable solutions that are delivered on time and on budget.

Concat AG IT Solutions - concat.de

Since 1990, Concat AG IT Solutions has been one of the leading system integrators for high-end storage, backup and archiving solutions for high availability, and heterogeneous data environments. As an established system integrator with many years of industry experience in the German market, Concat AG advises its clients on all aspects of enterprise computing. Concat AG is one of Germany's top system integrators, partnering with HP, SUN, SAP, IBM, Microsoft, Citrix, VMware, Legato, EMC and FalconStor.

MAC Source Communications - macsourceinc.com

MAC Source Communications, an Avaya Platinum Business Partner, is a complete solutions provider. Our core business is the design, installation and on-going support of converged communications products and services. We specialize in IP Telephony, Unified Messaging, Contact Center and mobility applications that drive business today. Throughout the U.S., we have successfully implemented mission critical solutions for our customers. Our business was built on and continues to be driven by our total commitment to customer satisfaction. MAC Source consistently achieves the highest customer satisfaction ratings among Avaya Business Partners nationally. Additionally, MAC Source partners with industry-leading manufacturers in wireless networks, video, data switching, routing and security applications.

Meridian IT Limited - mitl.co.uk

Meridian IT Limited provides a broad range of IT solutions for a diverse client base. Our partnerships with top technology companies in the U.K. enable us to provide reliable products and a range of professional services to support your critical IT system. We have proven implementation, skills and expertise in creative problem solving, innovative services, and IBM technologies.

Meridian IT - meridianitinc.com

Meridian IT is an international provider of IT and business technology solutions that serves mid- to large-sized organizations throughout the US and around the world. We are dedicated to helping customers build and manage information architectures ranging from single- to multi—platform, that make sense for their business based on their need to balance cost and risk, performance and efficiency and availability and security.

Meridian Leasing - meridianleasing.com

Meridian Leasing is one of the country's largest independent leasing companies and is an innovator in the design of highly flexible financing structures. We offer creative lease financing for a myriad of equipment types and industries, including technology information, healthcare, and manufacturing.

Tardis - tardis.com.au

TARDIS Services commenced operations in Australia in 1994 and has developed into a significant provider of Information Technology (IT) infrastructure solutions, consulting services and system support. TARDIS offers a single point of contact for all your IT needs from concept through to implementation and on into the future with systems support, maintenance and upgrades.

onlinemeridian.com